2024 MAED Annual Conference Description of Events

ROCK YOUR ROLE: A 4-hour STC approved Continuing Education. This course will teach the core building blocks of “your role” specifically related to assessment administration. It will help you establish guidelines, procedures, standards and policies to follow and so much more.

INSTRUCTOR: Anthony Meyaard, MMAO, CES and Joe VanHassel, MMAO

BS&A PRESENTATION: This presentation will be about the new Cloud Version of BS&A Software along with information about relevant Equalization topics.

DINNER AND ENTERTAINMENT: Harris, MI is a small quaint town full of local charm located on the beautiful shores of Lake Michigan. Harris has many outdoor activities to enjoy such as hiking, biking, and kayaking if you prefer indoor activities, try your luck at the tables in the casino or for those who just want to relax you can visit the Drift Spa located in the Island Resort or enjoy some wine tasting at the Northern Sun Winery.

ROCK YOUR ROLL: A 4-hour STC approved Continuing Education. This course will look at the local assessment roll and how the County Equalization plays a part in the assessment cycle, learn how they are similar yet different.

INSTRUCTOR: Shila Kiander, MAAO and Meshia Rose, MMAO

MAED BANQUET & AWARDS: You won’t want to miss this Rock and Roll themed event, with great food, awards and entertainment. If you would like to participate in a talent show styled event, please email housermanj@roscommoncounty.net

COUNTY GIFT EXCHANGE: Each conference attendee is encouraged to participate in the county gift exchange. You can participate by bringing a gift that highlights things made in your county. Most gifts are in the price range of $25-$50. Many directors get items donated for their gift exchange.

MAED ANNUAL MEETING: All regular members that are present at the annual meeting have full authority to make motions and vote. The annual meeting includes the election of new board members and any amendments to the bylaws.

VENDOR BOOTHS: There will be several opportunities throughout the conference for attendees to meet and network with vendors.
